BIG POINT

Rev. Mr. Murry of Escatawpa filled his regular appointment at the Big Point Church, Sunday. The Sunday school attendance was large, there being 12 members present and the collections were fine. There was a large attendance from Hurley at the services, Sunday night.

The Community Easter Egg Hunt Sunday afternoon, was well attended and the event was highly enjoyed especially by the children.

Mr and Mrs Otto Goff and children of Tanner-Williams, Ala., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goff and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ogden attended the church services at Helena, Sunday afternoon.

The house belonging to the Hassard family of Michigan, located in North Big Point, which was occupied by Mr and Mrs. Felix Kittrell and family, burned last week. Most of the household furnishings were saved. Some generous contributions were made to the Kittrell family from this and other neighborhoods to assist them in getting rehabilitated.

The Misses Marker made a business trip to Moss Point, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrie and children of the northern part of Mississippi moved into a part of Mrs. Smith's home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Shoemock and two younger children, spent Sunday with relatives at Daws, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Vincent had for their guests part of last week, Mrs. Vincent's sister, Mrs. Edith Leonard and sister-in-law, Mrs. J. E. Garner from Mobile and Bay Minette, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker of Chickasaw, Ala., came over, Sunday afternoon to visit his parents and sisters, until Monday afternoon.

Since H. S. Long does not serve his customers in Mobile with chickens and eggs any more, the question was asked, "has he retired?" The answer was that he had not but if

Revival Meeting Will Open Sunday

REV. W. J. BLACKMON

The Church of the Nazarene will begin a revival meeting Sunday, April 12, with Rev. W. J. Blackmon of Durant, Miss., in charge of the services.

Rev. Blackmon was converted four years ago in a revival held by the Rev. Howard S. Williams in Jackson, Miss. He was called to preach a short time after that. Since leaving the business world, God has blessed him, enabling him to build three churches in his brief ministry.

The pastor, Rev. L. S. Polk, has issued a cordial invitation to all persons to attend the services. The church is located at 944 South Pascagoula street in Pascagoula.

Letters To Editor
